WRESTLING REPRESENTATIVES LEFT LAST NIGHT ON A TRIP TO PENN. STATE UNIVERSITY

Team Went Down at Full Strength and are All in Good Shape for a Hard Contest on Saturday

THEIR OPPONENTS HAVE A VERY STRONG TEAM

Are Champions of the Eastern States and in Excellent Condition

The Wrestling Team left yesterday evening for Pennsylvania. It is expected that they will arrive at the Pennsylvania State College on Friday morning, and will have some time to rest up before their bouts in the evening. The team is composed of the following men: Errat (115 lbs) Audette (125 lbs) Hughes (135 lbs) Ford (145 lbs) Tucker (158 lbs) and McLean (heavyweight).

This is one of the strongest teams that has ever represented McGill in this branch of athletics and great things are expected of them. Tucker in the middleweight class and Hughes in the lightweight, are perhaps the two most likely winners.

Hughes is fast and clever and has had a great deal of experience. He wrestled at Queens before coming to McGill and has been in the game ever since. His only fault lies in the fact that he is, if anything, too tricky and often lays himself open for a fall by careless aggressiveness. Tucker is a clever man in excellent condition.

Audette in the 125 pound class, is also a good man and can be counted upon to give his opponent a hard run for the honors. He is a little bit slow, but is very strong and powerful and has been in the wrestling game for some years now. Ford, in the 145-pound class, has also had considerable experience. He is fast and strong and is clever and scientific. Ewart, in the 115-pound class, is hardly powerful enough to stand much chance, but he can be counted upon to give a good exhibition.

McLean, in the heavyweight, would appear to have very little chance of winning his bout. He is a new man this year, and has not as yet had a great deal of experience. In his bout with Routhwaite last Saturday, he displayed a very small knowledge of the wrestling game. He is big and powerful, and in his case strength will have to make up for want of skill.

The Pennsylvania State University team are one of the strongest aggregation of grapplers in the Eastern States. They won the championship last year and the majority of their team are back again. It is obvious from this that McGill will have a hard row to hoe, as the wrestling team here has never been over-

The number of volumes at present in the Library reaches nearly 140,000.

Pinero Comedy by College
Amateurs on the 19th of the Month

As has been already intimated in the columns of the "Daily," the Senior play will take place in the R.V. C. hall on Wednesday, February 19th. The "Cabinet Minister" Mr. Pinero's well-known comedy will be staged and the evening's entertainment is sure to be most enjoyable owing to the added feature of a concert by the McGill Undergraduates Orchestra.

The "Cabinet Minister" is one of the most complicated plays that will have ever been staged in the Royal Victoria College, there being no less than eight Women's parts and roles to be filled by men.

The comedy consists of four acts and the theme is based as far as the Daily has been able to find out—on the dealings of the wife of a Cabinet Minister, with a Jewish money-lender. The action is complicated by several love stories. The cast includes the following Senior Students:

- Armstrong.
- The Dowager Lady Drumdurris Miss Armstrong.
- Lady Drumdurris—Miss Reinhardt.
- Lady Twombly—Miss Morison.

Editorials

A brief survey of the Inter-collegiate Athletic season so far this year leads the observer to conclude that the positions of McGill and Varsity this year with regard to the championships won by these two Universities will in all probability be almost exactly reversed. Last year McGill won the track, hockey and basketball honors while Varsity took the football. This year the Toronto teams have already landed the honors in the track and basketball. McGill has won the football and it looks very much as if Varsity would also succeed in landing the Hockey honors.

McGill still has a chance of winning several cups. The Swimming and Water Polo teams look good enough to win out. There is still a very slight chance that Queens may defeat Varsity in Toronto and that McGill may win out in the Queens game in Kingston, thus making a three cornered tie. The Boxing, Wrestling and Fencing team are also still to be heard from.

Now that the latter club's competitions are over and the Inter-collegiate team is practically decided upon, it is of the utmost importance that every man should work his hardest to get into shape for the Inter-collegiate championships. McGill wrestlers, boxers and fencers have never achieved any very marked success in the past two years contests. This year the McGill team appears to be somewhat stronger than usual and a more successful result is expected in consequence.

In former years lack of condition has been alleged as the cause of McGill's failure. We understand that a determined effort is being made this season to see that all of the men are in the very best possible condition. A Selection Committee of three have been appointed, one from each of the three branches of the Club. The duty of these three men is to see that every member of the team is doing the proper amount of training and if any man does not give satisfaction in this respect they have the power to replace him.

It is hoped by this committee that every member of the team will make a practice of going through a hard work-out every afternoon in the Y.M.C.A. gymnasium.

It is only by strenuous training and practice that McGill can hope to land the championship and the Daily sincerely hopes that the newly appointed committee will have no trouble in achieving in this respect the success which is so undoubtedly desirable.

The success achieved by the Undergraduate Orchestra upon the occasion of their recent sacred concert and the obvious interest displayed therein by the large audience present leads us to hope that we shall be so fortunate as to have more of them this year. Sunday afternoon is often dull for the undergraduate and a better method of spending time than listening to the excellent programme provided last Sunday could scarcely be provided.

The performance last Sunday was a revelation to many students. Few of us realized the capabilities of the orchestra, or the presence of so much talent in our midst. The concert was enjoyed, not only by many undergraduates but also by a large number of outside people. The Daily offers its sincere congratulations to Mr. Smith and the McGill Undergraduate Orchestra on the result of their painstaking and persistent efforts and wishes them every success during the rest of their season. We hope to hear more of them in the near future.

A TORONTO ACCOUNT OF TUESDAY'S GAME IN LIMESTONE CITY

Webster Scored Two Final Goals for Varsity

After wearing Queens down, and especially excelling in the last half, Varsity squeezed a win from the Queen's here tonight by 3 to 2. In the last four minutes of play Toronto scored two goals after a bombardment of the tri-color nets for twenty minutes. At half-time the score was one-all, and from the calibre of the blue and white the result was a gamble.

Smith, the guardian of the nets for the Kingston university, played a marvellous game and is justly given the credit of saving his aggregation from bad defeat.

The fans were treated to one of the most glaring exhibitions of body-checking that has taken place on the covered ice surface in some time. Referee Jack Marshall handed out but two penalties. Tripping was freely indulged in.

Queens commenced a whirlwind game and led Varsity somewhat in the bodying. Queen's heavier opponents calmly waited for this to subside somewhat, and for the ten minutes played a defence game. Effective combination at this time was at a premium, the checking being close.

After seventeen minutes' play, Len Smith registered Queen's first tally, and shortly afterwards Frith received a nasty cut over the knee and was removed to the General Hospital, where it was stitched.

Up to three minutes before the first half was called each team played six men, Queen's dropping Box. After six minutes' intermission, fourteen men returned to the ice, Webster replacing Frith. Here Aird evened up the score for Varsity. Half time: Varsity 1, Queen's 1.

Two minutes after the second period commenced Box banged Queen's second and final score past Parker.

From this out Varsity proved superior for the most part, forcing the play at centre Queen's territory.

Dafoe, who was strange to the defence, played a consistent game, Varsity checked back well, and on several occasions successfully worked a four-man combination through the defence. With four minutes to play and Queen's looking as if they would hold down their lead of one point Webster pulled Varsity up to an even score, two all.

Then one minute before time was called Webster scored the winning point.

Queen's showed their lack of practice, and their defence was somewhat weakened owing to Blakeslee's absence. The line-up was:

Referee: John Marshall, Toronto.

A UNIQUE SITUATION IN INTERCOLLEGIATE CHAMPIONSHIP RACE

Toronto will Probably Land
Honours

Toronto since their win over Queens in Kingston on Tuesday, now look the favorites for the Intercollegiate honors. If they can repeat in the return fixture at the Queen City and it now looks as if they would, the Blue and White will have added another championship to their belts. However, should the Presbyterians take Varsity into camp and defeat McGill in Kingston the cup would repose in the Lakeside Village for the next twelve months. But if Queens down Varsity and McGill defeat the tri-color outfit a three-cornered tie would result and this is McGill's one hope of retaining the silverware. This has been a season of surprises, so one or two more would be in order.

So far this season, all three teams have lost their home games but have managed to come through in their fixtures away from home. Queen's won in Montreal, but lost to Varsity in Kingston. Varsity was downed by McGill in Toronto, but won in Montreal and Kingston, while McGill lost to Queens and Toronto at home, but defeated Varsity on the latter's ice. If the results of the two remaining games follow suit a situation will have developed which has probably never been equaled in the annals of Canadian hockey.

ONLY TWO SENIORS OUT FOR PRACTICE WITH HOCKEY SQUAD

Second Team Men Showed
Class at Arena Yesterday

Yesterday's hockey practice at the Arena although sparsely attended was nevertheless productive of some first-class hockey, the intermediates being out in full force. Montgomery and Hughes were the only senior men in line. Not much really hard work was indulged in owing to the absence of Laurie Roberts who usually keeps everyone going at top speed right through the hour. However, the hockey was fast in spots and most of the players put over some good skating and stickhandling. Varsity's win over Queens in Kingston on Tuesday night practically cinched the championship for the Blue and White, but if McGill can down the Presbyterians when the clash in the Limestone City next Friday they will be second in the league standing. Queens, however, may spring a surprise by beating Toronto when the come together in the return fixture and in that case there would still be a chance for a tie-up. As one or two of the second team are playing stellar hockey at present it is not unlikely that a shift will be made in the lineup for the next game with a view to infusing more snap into the team.

Sutherland who captained the R.M.C. intermediate champions last year has been out to the last few practices and although not in condition is showing class. Ryley and Wickson are coming all the time, while Kendall and Fawcett on the defence work well together and are good puck-carriers. As there are three more practices before the next game these men will have plenty of opportunities to show what they have got and one or two of them may be used against the Presbyterians. The next practice is scheduled for to-morrow afternoon and the squad will likely settle down then to prepare for the final fracas.

INTER-CLASS GAME IN FACULTY OF LAW WON BY '13 AND '14

Legal Lights Indulge in Fast
Game

The men of Law '13 and '14, showed their superiority in hockey over the Law '15 men when they defeated them to the tune of 10 to 1 on the campus rink yesterday morning. The ice was in fine shape, though covered by a slight layer of snow and consequently brisk hockey was seen during the entire game. Stewart MacDougall was easily the best man on the ice, playing rover for the seniors and scoring seven out of the ten goals scored. Cameron was the man who saved the freshmen from a white-wash, scoring their only goal after a sharp struggle before the net. The game was marked by a series of individual rushes, very few passes being made. Though the seniors occasionally showed signs of combination play, the '15 men certainly had none, their policy being, "every man for himself."

"Buster" Matheson handled the game in fine style, but he certainly was kept very busy keeping track of the numerous off-sides. The game was very much delayed owing to a peculiar habit the men had of battling the puck over the fence, necessitating a search in the snow before the game could be continued. The teams lined up as follows:

Fifteen. '13 and '14
Howard ... goal ... Allen
Pompart ... point ... McDonald
Wanklyn ... cover ... Dunlop
Audette ... centre ... Moyse
Cameron ... rover ... MacDougall
Mulcoir (c) ... L. wing ... Scott
Kert ... R. wing ... Marchand
Referee—W. Matheson.
Goal Judges—Dixon and Brown.
Timer—Melvené.

The case had reached a critical stage. Even the judge seemed to awaken to a live interest in the proceedings, for the most important witness was about to be examined.

"So you are the lady's maid?" began the relentless barrister.

"Yes, sir."

"And where were you at 7 o'clock on the evening in question?"

"I was in my lady's room, sir."

"For what purpose?"

"I was dressing my lady's hair sir."

The barrister leaned forward and spoke slowly and impressively.

"Now, think," he said, "I want you to be very careful in answering this question: 'Was or was not your mistress in the room at the time?'"

All the world's a stage, and most of us want to occupy the critics' seats.

THINGS THEATRICAL

HIS MAJESTY'S

The production of "The Mikado," at His Majesty's last night, was fully as good, if not better than "The Toy-maker," which the Pollard Opera Co. so ably presented on Monday and Tuesday.

The opera, as usual with most musical comedies, does not contain very much plot.

"The Mikado," is a comic opera by Gilbert and Sullivan, and contains some excellent musical numbers. Nanki-Poo, the son of the Mikado of Japan, is in love with Yum-Yum, ward of Ko-Ko, the Lord High Executioner of Titipu.

Katisha, an elderly lady, is violently in love with Nanki-Poo, and the Mikado desires that they shall be married. Nanki-Poo disguises himself as a minstrel, runs away and goes to seek Yum-Yum, who, he finds, is about to marry Ko-Ko.

Ko-Ko receives a letter from the Mikado, saying that unless there is an execution within a month the post of Lord High Executioner will be abolished.

Pooh-Bah, Lord High Everything Else, and Pish-Tash, a noble Lord, decide that Ko-Ko shall execute himself, or find a substitute. He seeks out Nanki-Poo, and promises to let him marry Yum-Yum if he will consent to be executed within a month.

THE SKATING PARTY
YESTERDAY EVENING
A MARKED SUCCESS

About Two Hundred were Present at the Y.M.C.A. Reception

With the exception of the fact that there was no moon, last night could hardly have been more ideal for a skating party. It was just cold enough to make everyone who attended the second Y.M.C.A. skating party, feel in the best of humour.

The ice was in excellent condition, thanks to Jimmie, and skating was altogether a pleasure for once, at least, this year.

Some two hundred people, Juniors, Sophomores and others were present.

The programme consisted of ten numbers with two extras. Music was most efficiently provided by the indispensable barrel-organ. The task of announcing the various numbers fell to the lot of the capable Mr. Struthers.

After the skating was over, refreshments were served in Strathcona Hall. The singing of the National Anthem concluded a thoroughly enjoyable evening.

Nanki-Poo agrees.

As the end of the month draws near Ko-Ko refuses to execute Nanki-Poo, and with Pooh-Bah agrees to swear to the Mikado that Nanki-Poo has been executed by them.

The Mikado arrives with Katisha, in search of his son. They tell him of the execution of Nanki-Poo.

The Mikado, who knew the name which his son had assumed, orders that Ko-Ko and Pooh-Bah be executed for the murder of the heir apparent.

Ko-Ko seeks advice from Nanki-Poo who tells him that to save his life must marry Katisha. Katisha, who is a fright, at last agrees. Nanki-Poo appears, and everything is explained to the satisfaction of all but Katisha, who begins to wreak her vengeance on her poor husband, Ko-Ko.

There will be a matinee this afternoon and a performance tonight. On Friday and Saturday the same company will present "Sergeant Brue."

Notes and Comments

Having beaten Queens in Kingston all that remains for Varsity to do in order to land the championship is to repeat the performance in Toronto. Whether they can do this or not is difficult to say, as Queens have won several notable victories against Varsity in the Queen city. The Kingstons often put up their finest exhibition of hockey in Toronto.

Right here we might congratulate Montgomery on his wonderful goal-minding, both in Toronto and Montreal. Many persons who saw both games are inclined to think that he was exceptionally lucky, but he that as it may, he won the game for McGill here, and saved them from a worse beating in Montreal.—Varsity.

In Tuesday night's game, Basil Frith, the Varsity centre man, received a cut on the knee from the point of a skate, which will probably keep him out of hockey for the rest of the year. His loss will be felt by Varsity, even though they have a large number of good substitutes. Frith is one of the most sensational players in the Intercollegiate league. In addition to this he is also, and justly, one of the most popular.

Varsity pulled off another whirlwind finish in Kingston on Tuesday night. Queens led with a 2-1 score until four minutes before full time, when Varsity tied the score and then netted another goal, winning out in the last few minutes of play. We used
